An escape route that connects the crypt to the mouth of the beasts
What is the meaning of this?
Well to understand... In order to conceal it, you would at first glance not know what's here
The wind blowing through, comes out sounding like a flute
It seems quite like a monster's weeping voice
The monsters sing the requiem in a sad voice
Grieving over a dead person's soul...

That person was my Uncle Theodore
That important person--- to redeem himself did me a favor
After that, I hated him the most

Way of doing things?
Yes, way of doing things
That's why he drowned
